The countdown continues: 100 days left until the great jubilee. Only 100 days left for us to enter – as Schoenstatt Family – Schoenstatt's second century. Only 100 days for pilgrims from all over the world to gather at the place of origin to renew their "Yes" to the Covenant of Love and to Fr. Kentenich's mission. Between 8,000 and 10,000 pilgrims will come to Schoenstatt on October 18th for this jubilee pilgrimage. Everything is being prepared for October. Will you be here? At the 2014 Office and within the different Teams, the work goes hand in hand so that the pilgrims - who come from 50 countries – will experience a deep encounter with one another and with the MTA at the founding place.

The preparations for the Jubilee pilgrimage are becoming more and more dynamic as the weeks go by: The Pilgrim Arena is being renewed, where we will celebrate the big open air Holy Masses. In Rome, the Team works "under pressure" in preparation for the Audience with Pope Francis on October 25th. They met with the leaders of different communities in the Church with the promise "we will come." The pilgrim's book – that every pilgrim will receive upon their arrival to Schoenstatt – has been completed in German and it is now being translated to various languages. At the Ticket Office, the requests for participation tickets from all countries are piling up.

There's still a lot to accomplish in these 100 days! Something important: please register as soon as possible with your national registration office. You can still motivate your friends and members of the Movement to come and participate in this historical hour of grace.

The Office 2014 thanks you above all for all your prayers. Five years ago we started this preparations – as an International Movement. With a Triennium, the Family took up all streams of life that were alive all over our Schoenstatt world. During these last 100 days we want to thank the Blessed Mother for all the blessings we have received and to prepare our hearts – day by day – to be open for jubilee graces.
