"We are setting out for Schoenstatt"

We carry the flame into the future

I was there for one and half years. We had a great team and really nice children. Today really is my last day in the kindergarten. Now a different situation but that same feeling:
 Julia and I have known each other since birth however I have not seen her for ten years. Now it was my birthday and who was standing in my doorway Julia: "I just wanted to see you again. I have really missed you."
 You have that feeling of longing, a deep inner joy, a feeling of safeness. Mum bakes the best cake in the world and I am so looking forward to it. Now I realize how much I really look forward to going home.
 "Here you have that feeling of well-being." J.K.
 That is exactly what I want to embody, what I want to radiate. I carry the flame for the people all around me sometimes it is noticeable, sometimes not. I am going to the starting line for all their great and small longings, their joys and sorrows. You are now invited to lace up your shoes daily for someone else until 18th March 2014 and go to the starting line for them.

My thoughts - when putting my shoes on:

For whom am I going to begin this day?

As International Schoenstatt Youth we will set out every month to fulfil a new resolution.

On your marks! Get set! Go!

The first volunteers from the USA, Germany, Spain and Hungary have now arrived in Schoenstatt. The office for the youth team 2014 is now officially up and running

Our vigil team has also reached the starting line and many ideas for the vigil have reached us. All our longings and efforts will be embedded in this "Night of Longing" which we will bring to the original shrine. For us, as generation 2014, it is already certain this will be a night on fire!

I am coming to the jubilee ...

I am coming to the Jubilee because this is one chance in a million. Schoenstatt is very important to me and now it is possible to celebrate together. Now is the chance to meet all those people worldwide who are connected to Our Lady and live the covenant of love.

(Alice Gamper, Hungary, age 20)

I am excited to volunteer here and to prepare for a fruitful Jubilee at the beginning of the next century of Schoenstatt for the renewal of the Church and the world. In this first week at all the original places and the International Office 2014, it has been good to walk with Fr. Kentenich and all the people who have been preparing long before 2014 started! Pray for us and we are praying for you! See you soon!"

(Wayne Wang, USA, age 22)

First days

"This is such a great gift for me to be here in Schoenstatt and to help with all the jubilee preparations. Being here brings you so much closer to it all as you can see how everything for the jubilee is developing. This is a very special time and everyone here will be giving of their best so that the jubilee celebration will become everyone's celebration. This is a chance in million for me to be here, a chance of a lifetime..." (Ester, Spain)
