"We are setting out for Schoenstatt"

We carry the flame into the future

Coffee, calendar, MTA picture, laptop, music, bananas, post-its, jogging shoes, little RTA crown, swimming goggles, father telephone, liquorice and my mobile – with all this at hand I will survive the day. Without my mobile I have no alarm, without coffee I cannot get up, without my post-its I would not know what I was to do. My day would be formless; all these things save me from the chaos in my life and from depression – even the MTA picture. With that I can imagine myself very quickly in the shrine and then I take a word from the Father Kantenich telephone to help me with the difficult call that awaits. ... This is how Schoenstatt is in my daily life. Quite concretely Juan from Spain explains to us how his everyday life works - it is almost a work of art and taster of what you can expect in the youth tent. So what does your everyday work of art look like?

A taster of what is to come

My thoughts - when putting my shoes on:

How am I going to make Schoenstatt a part of my day today?

As International Schoenstatt Youth we will set out every month to fulfil a new resolution.

On your marks! Get set! Go!

In the meantime we now have 18 volunteers working here for the jubilee. Here in our team 2014 youth office we have Matias, Mery and Soraya together with Ester, Sr. Anastasia, Katrin and Simone.

On Friday evening there will be an international youth act – a spiritual night of prayer around the original shrine. In a night of adoration, silence, hymns as well as confession, we want to go towards the new sealing of the covenant as a new generation in and around the original shrine.

only 152
days
to go

- * The meeting with the Holy Father will take place on Saturday 25th October at 12:00 p.m. in Rome.
- * Our Lady will be presented with 100 roses out of gratitude in October.

I am coming to the jubilee ...

„...because I am part of the last 100 years of Schoenstatt and I want to be part of the renewal of Schoenstatt in the next one hundred years.“

(Juan Martino Nales, 22, Spain)

„I am going to the jubilee celebration to thank the MTA for accepting our total surrender, to thank for everything that came about during the last 100 years of the movement and for this playing a strong part in my life. As a member of the Boys' Youth, I want to renew my covenant of love as heir to the hero sodalists and to pray for the coming 100 years.“

(João Fernandes, 20, Portugal)

Get involved!

Send us your everyday picture just as Juan did and let it become a work of art in the youth tent.
We will put your picture on display and are really excited about what your Schoenstatt everyday day around the world might look like. Please send us a jpeg to: youth@
